Getting Started

Install the tool and run it once with no arguments to see the list of commands.

Configuration

Settings are read from a file in the home directory, and each can be overridden on the command line.

Environment Variables

A variable overrides the file but not the command line.

Troubleshooting

Run the doctor command first, because it checks the common causes in order.